

Cryspen Court

This is a 2 and 3 storey modern residential development that is neutral in the conservation area. It was built circa 1986 and consists of retirement flats for the elderly. The property is located to the rear of some private housing on the frontages to Cannon Street and Garland Street. A mill building previously occupied this site.

Asphalt road and footpath finishes with rather good modern street light standards.

