

Mark Jennings Lane

The north side of this street is within the conservation area but it is not obvious why. Behind the Victorian houses on Northgate Street are the related gardens and a car parking bay. The gardens are hidden behind a tall hedge. This is all rather neutral in the conservation area.

To the south of the street is a commercial modern housing development of limited architectural ambition.

The road has modern concrete sets and the pavings are asphalt.

